in the great dynasties of china there are many tales of corruption espionage and intrigue but perhaps no tale is more intriguing than the rise of china s first and only female emperor wu zetian 624 705 in the hierarchies of imperial china there are many who call themselves empress and there are many who held sway over their weak minded emperor husbands but only wu zetian reached the pinnacle when at the age of 65 she usurped her son and became the undisputed empress of tang dynasty china empress wu zetian was the only female emperor in chinese history honored as the holy and divine emperor of wu zhou her original name was wu mei niang and she changed her name to wu zhao after ascending the throne she entered the palace as a concubine of emperor taizong of tang but she had a close relationship with the future emperor gaozong li chih after emperor taizong s death she entered the gan ye temple and became a nun the power struggle in the harem brought her back to the palace where she successfully eliminated her rivals and was made empress in 655 she participated in politics and was known as the two saints along with emperor gaozong after emperor gaozong s death she controlled the government in 690 she ascended to the throne and proclaimed herself the holy emperor changing luoyang to the divine capital and the country s name to zhou this period is known as the southern zhou or wu zhou in history this book starts its plot from the time when wu zetian was constrained in gan ye temple after the former emperor taizong was deceased and how the new emperor gaozong brought her to the court again later she gradually realized her dream of becoming the most powerful woman in the palace through bloody struggles and bold strategies she had outstanding abilities in governing the country but in the power struggle within the palace she showed an extremely cruelty being ruthless and killing innocent people in order to clear obstacles and eliminate political enemies in the struggle for imperial power she carried out bloody killings time and time again not even sparing her own descendants this is the first book to investigate how constitutional monarchy could survive in the twentieth and twenty first centuries during which many monarchies were overthrown by revolutions or coups d'état in asia the middle east africa and europe today we have about 200 countries in the world but there are only 28 which have their own monarchical sovereigns emperor king queen grand duke prince sultan or emir and even if we add the commonwealth realms to these we would find almost three quarters of the globe are republics at this moment so will monarchy disappear from human history in the not too distant future this book shows how the european monarchs have played important roles not only as heads of state but also as heads of nation in which they are symbols of unity and national identity of continuity and stability fountainheads of national achievement and success and supporters of social service consequently they have grappled with difficult contemporary issues such as social welfare the global environment the protection of wildlife multiculturalism and the lgbt movement which national governments would not be able to deal with sufficiently in each country this book also suggests reforming the existing emperor system of japan in reference to the activities of european constitutional monarchy in a world of corruption and intrigue wu zetian s rise to power as china s only female emperor is unparalleled starting as a concubine of emperor taizong wu zetian was forced into a temple after his death only to return to the palace through cunning and fierce ambition with her husband emperor gaozong she ruled as one of the two saints but after his death she seized control and became the undisputed ruler of the tang dynasty at 65 she usurped her own son to claim the throne renaming the dynasty wu zhou known for both her brilliant leadership and ruthless tactics wu zetian eliminated rivals and even family members to secure her place in history this novel captures her bloody ascent political savvy and reign of ambition the inspiring story of wu zetian china s only female emperor brought to life in a beautifully illustrated children s book such sorrowful rage wu zetian stands above all as the only female empress of china her desire for the heavens grants her unprecedented power jeanne d arc on the other hand comes from a peasant family and has no particular desire with such an overwhelming difference in abilities wu zetian s victory seems inevitable so how is this lowly peasant from france matching her attacks blow for blow as jeanne d arc s magic begins to manifest the true nature of her power finally comes to light but will it be enough to overcome that all powerful witch of dominion what does it mean to read from elsewhere women writers in postsocialist china introduces readers to a range and variety of contemporary chinese women s writing which has seen phenomenal growth in recent years the book addresses the different ways women s issues are understood in china and the west attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism by focusing on women s autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous chinese feminisms taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within china and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate the book argues that women centred writing in china has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice this critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes a one volume narrative history of china from the earliest inhabitants to the twentieth century for a popular readership china is a country with an ancient and highly sophisticated civilization of which the chinese have been justly proud when the countries of europe were struggling to move beyond mud huts and stone tools the chinese already had a highly complex society and were creating works of great beauty yet although it has for many years been a source of great fascination to the west the history of china remains a mystery to the layman in this highly accessible narrative written for the general reader rayne kruger produces a synthesis of chinese history for the non specialist reader rayne kruger was born in south africa and began his working life in a johannesburg goldmine before becoming in succession a lawyer broadcaster and actor he emigrated to england in 1947 where he joined the bbc he wrote a number of successful novels followed by a history of south africa 1959 goodbye dolly gray which has remained in print ever since an astute business man he then founded a property group he subsequently went into partnership with his wife the successful restaurateur and cookery school entrepreneur prue leith business woman of the year 1990 he died on 21 december 2002 wu zhao 624 705 better known as wu zetian or empress wu is the only woman to have ruled china as emperor over the course of its 5 000 year history how did she in a predominantly patriarchal and androcentric society ascend the dragon throne exploring a mystery that has confounded scholars for centuries this multifaceted history suggests that china s rich pantheon of female divinities and eminent women played an integral part in the construction of wu zhao s sovereignty wu zhao deftly deployed language symbol and ideology to harness the cultural resonance maternal force divine energy and historical weight of buddhist devis confucian exemplars daoist immortals and mythic goddesses establishing legitimacy within and beyond the confines of confucian ideology tapping into powerful subterranean reservoirs of female power wu zhao built a pantheon of female divinities carefully calibrated to meet her needs at court her pageant was promoted in scripted rhetoric reinforced through poetry celebrated in theatrical productions and inscribed on steles rendered with deft political acumen and aesthetic flair these affiliations significantly enhanced wu zhao s authority and cast her as the human vessel through which the pantheon s divine energy flowed her strategy is a model of political brilliance and proof that medieval chinese women enjoyed a more complex social status than previously known
